About Us

PMI-Central Illinois Chapter (PMI-CIC) is chartered by the Project Management Institute (PMI) and is one of two chapters in Illinois. Since 1998 PMI-CIC has been supporting local professionals with and without the “Project Manager” title. Our mission is to “Empower Project Professionals to make ideas a reality. Through local advocacy, networking, collaboration, research, and education, PMI-CIC prepares organizations and individuals at every stage of their career journey so they can drive success in a world of change.”

Quick Facts:

- Founded in 1998
 - ~600 members with an additional 2,500 professionals who subscribe to chapter communication
 - Committed to the PMI Code of Ethics and the Talent Triangle (Power Skills, Ways of Working, and Business Acumen)
 - Top cities: Bloomington/Normal, Springfield, Peoria, Champaign/Urbana, Morton, Decatur, and Pekin
 - Top industries: Insurance, Banking, Healthcare, Higher Education, Manufacturing, and Government
 - Type of chapter activities: Lunch & Learn meetings, Evening meetings, Networking events, Outreach, and Livestream events
